EDITORIAL JOTS

Municipal ownership will cut a wide swath with the people of the country this fall.

Spooks still continue to make it lively for people in Reno. It is probably merely the starting of the political campaign there. The Rumps are up.

Dowie is down and out. He was a sham and pretender of the first water and no one need sympathize with his dupes.

Spring has finally climbed down off the lap of winter and every one is glad she has decided that her presence there was not becoming or desirable.

The voters who went after municipal ownership in Chicago and Kansas City gained victories in both places. Municipal ownership is gradually coming to stay.

Some of the worthies who are now out threatening what they are going to do to the Silver party in politics would never have been heard of but for this same party.

The authorities of New York are rapidly going after the insurance grafters who used the funds of their respective companies to help elect republican candidates to office. They are arresting them on the charge of felony.

At an eastern watering place a lady rescued a swimmer from the cruel sea and out of gratitude he married her. Single ladies who frequent the seaside resorts this season should remember the old adage that there are still as good fish in the sea as ever were caught.

Chauncy Depew, has decided not to run again for Senator. This shows a glimmering of sense but it is not sufficiently far reaching to cause his resignation. Platt is in the same box. Both their disgraceful political careers are at an end.

While people swear at the weather and many no doubt exercise a little profanity in that respect, they should bear in mind that so long as the season is kept back there will be all the more chance for the fruit blossoms to escape the frost which always hits them when the spring comes in with too much of a rush.

William R. Hearst says that he held his nose when he supported Parker last fall. This really expresses in simple but highly appropriate language the condition of things with many of us out this way. The nomination however has taught the Democracy that no more selections of August Belmont will go with the people of the country.
